PENSACOLA, MARCH 29, 1900.

PRECINCT DELEGATES

The Mays Democratic Club of Pensacola has endorsed the following ticket for delegates from the city precincts to the Democratic County Convention to be held at Fowlston, April 14 and ask that they be given a hearty support by the voters: Precinct 12—H. Gingles, David Sheehan, Wm. Bazzell, J. D. Maxwell, and T. F. Wrighton. Precinct 13—W. A. Blount, Thos. Hannah, John Christie, J. Geo. Waite and W. T. Duncan. Precinct 14—Geo. Brown, Jos. I. Johnson, J. B. McGaughey, John Pfeiffer and J. E. Beard. Precinct 15—E. H. Putnam, John West, Wm. Bennett, J. E. Abercrombie and W. A. Dunham.

The time may yet come when the perennial aspirant for re-election to a state office will have indelibly stamped upon his little boom the label: "I am a democrat—for the revenue there is in it, and not for the public welfare!"

CONTRAST the cowardly vacillation of President McKinley on the Porto Rico tariff issue with the firm, undaunted and consistent attitude of President Cleveland, when he wrote, as below, concerning his veto of a tariff bill that had been tinkered out of all resemblance to a democratic measure by alleged democrats whose personal greed led them astray, and whose chagrin at not being able to use and control Cleveland led them into a revolt ending in party defeat: "I take my place with the rank and file of the democratic party, who believe in tariff reform, and who know what it is; who refuse to accept the result embodied in this bill as the close of the war; who are not blinded to the fact that the livery of democratic reform has been stolen and worn in the service of a republican protection, and who have marked the places where the deadly blight of treason has blasted the counsels of the brave in their hour of might. The trusts and combinations, the communism of self, whose machinations have prevented us from reaching the success we deserved, should not be forgotten nor forgiven."

HERE are some current democratic opinions of the Nebraska platform as a model for the Kansas City convention to adopt: Senator Martin of Virginia is quoted by the New York Herald and Baltimore Sun as saying that the democrats of Virginia cannot and will not stand on the Nebraska platform. Senator Clay of Georgia is quoted as saying that he could not support the platform adopted by the Nebraska democracy, and does not believe that it would be acceptable to the national democracy. "The populist features," said he, "are objectionable to all southern democrats who have had to contend with the populist party in the South."

Senator Bacon of Georgia is quoted as having said that the democratic party does not take kindly to the expression "initiative and referendum" because of its close association with the populist party. Senator Lindsey of Kentucky is quoted as having said that he is not surprised at the tone of the Nebraska platform. "For," said he, "Nebraska has always been, in my judgment, more than half populist." This is in line with the view expressed by the Richmond Times that there is no such thing as democracy in Nebraska, and that there is no essential difference between Nebraska democracy, so-called, and Nebraska populism. Even Senator Tillman went so far as to say that the Nebraska platform was built to suit the exigencies of the party in Nebraska, and was not intended to be binding on the party in the national campaign.

A Shining Example.

When invited to present, in a joint debate with his opponent, his "claims" to a re-nomination, Congressman Robert W. Davis of the second Florida district responded: "I say to you very frankly that I make no claim. A claim means an assertion of a right. I have not been in public life long enough yet to have come to believe myself entitled to an office. The right to the office is in the people until they confer it upon some citizen. When the term of that office expires it goes back to the people."

It cannot lie in the heart of any loyal and consistent democrat to withhold enthusiastic admiration for the sentiment, or for the man who uttered it. This being true, what should be the popular conception of the sense of modesty and of "the eternal fitness of things" possessed by aspirants who perennially clamor for repeated re-election to places to which they have been chosen, on the ground, simply, that they have performed their official duties as well as they knew how to do so?

A becoming modesty, like that exhibited by "Bob" Davis, the idol of the second district, does not appear to have any place in the matter of filling other state offices. Incumbents who have been often—however wisely or meritoriously—made their own successors, serenely reappear upon the political field every four years asking—actually asking—the democratic people of the state, like Oliver Twist, for "More!" Contrast their attitude with that of Congressman Davis.

BUT for the large—and, apparently increasing—numbers of alleged democrats whose personal and private interests lead them to fall down and worship the protective tariff fetish, the cardinal democratic doctrine of tariff reform might have been crystallized into practice. Never before have the people of the country been brought so directly face to face with the iniquities of protection; never have its advocates been so bold and unblushing in its service. Shall high tariff democrats, in sympathy with republican tariff robbers, dominate the democratic party and lead it to destruction?

H. E. STOCKBRIDGE.

It is very hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N. Y.) dairyman called at a drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in, he left word for him to come at once on his return. He also bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned, saying the doctor need not come, as the child was much better. The druggist, Mr. Otto Scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country. Funeral of Mrs. Langley.

The funeral of Mrs. Bertha Langley took place from St. Michael's church yesterday afternoon and was attended by a large concourse of sorrowing friends. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful. The pall-bearers were A. A. Fisher, J. C. Watson, P. J. McK. Oerting, C. Higgins, Robt. Yond and P. Worthy. Relatives from other cities who came here to attend the funeral were Wm. Langley of Brunswick, Mrs. Sophia Wellhouse of Atlanta, Miss Jennie Morrill, Mrs. Amelia Lyons and Jas. A. Lyons of Mobile.

Hannah Bros. are agents for DeWees' Cough Cure, Diarrhea Remedy and Witch Hazel Salve. They guarantee all three of these preparations and will cheerfully refund the money to any one who uses them without being benefited. Price 25 cents each.

THE MAYS CLUB.

A Large and Ernest Meeting Held at the Armory Last Night.

The meeting of the Mays Democratic club, which was to have been held in the room of the water front commission last night, was so largely attended that it necessitated moving up stairs to the armory. Before going up stairs, however, the secretary opened the membership book and several representative democrats, who had not previously done so, signed the roll.

Owing to the illness of Chairman Putnam Hon. T. E. Welles was called to the chair.

The chairmen of precinct committees reported that sub-committees had been appointed and that the work was progressing favorably. They were granted further time in which to make full reports.

The chair called on a number of members for expressions and encouraging reports of the outlook in their respective precincts were made by Messrs. David Sheehan, Wm. Bazzell, J. Ed. O'Brien, A. C. Blount, John A. Merritt, C. C. Nicholson, C. M. Coston, J. E. Brooks, H. H. Thornton, W. U. Goodman, D. W. Reilly, Ed. Senior, Sr., Thos. F. Wrighton, Wm. Bennett, Pope Reese, Henry Bellingier and W. M. Ball.

Hon. J. Ed. O'Brien said that the wind was fair, the sea smooth and everybody working with enthusiasm.

Judge A. C. Blount said the club should certainly be congratulated, for its membership was made up of as representative a set of citizens as were ever gathered together in one cause in Pensacola, and that each member showed a determination to land Dannelte H. Mays in the gubernatorial chair.

Thos. F. Wrighton said the object of the club should certainly be accomplished, for nine-tenths of the working democrats of the city were enrolled as members.

H. Clayton Rogers, reporter of the Pensacola Press, said that he was a new comer and not entitled to a vote, but he would like to have a voice for D. H. Mays, for he clearly saw that the best and most representative citizens of Escambia county favored his candidacy.

On motion of C. M. Coston Mr. Rogers was made an honorary member of the club.

Thos. F. Wrighton said that several voters had approached him and seemed to think that the club should endorse some county candidate for the legislature; that he had told them that the club was not endorsing any candidate for county office; that it was organized for the sole purpose of working to secure delegates to the state convention, who would vote for D. H. Mays for governor, and he thought it would be well to impress this fact upon the public mind.

Secretary Ward requested the representatives of the press to state that the club was not organized in the interest of any candidate or set of candidates for county offices; that it was a Mays club pure and simple.

Judge A. C. Blount suggested that it might be well to state that all the candidates for county officers were announced before this club was formed and that it had nothing to do with bringing them out or endorsing them.

John O'Connor as reporter of the Journal, wanted to know, in the capacity of a reporter, if the club repudiated all other candidates except D. H. Mays.

Chairman Welles stated that the club repudiated no one; that it was organized with the sole object of working for D. H. Mays for governor and had nothing to do with the candidacy of any of those seeking nomination for county officers.

On motion of D. W. Reilly it was ordered that those newspaper reporters who had any doubts on the question could ascertain from the secretary the object of the club.

The meeting then adjourned until Friday, April 6. Meanwhile the precinct committees will meet and receive reports from the sub-committees.

MOUNTAIN MINT TONIC

Everybody needs a tonic these lazy spring days to drive away that tired feeling. Mountain Mint Tonic does this. It invigorates and purifies the blood. It cures the worst cases of indigestion. It cures permanently all stomach troubles. It makes the sick well; the weak strong; and it gives one who is all run down a new lease on life and a healthy appetite. Mountain Mint Tonic has been tried by hundreds of people in Pensacola, everyone of whom heartily recommends it as the best tonic they ever used. It does more than we claim for it. One dollar per bottle. Six bottles for five dollars. Try it. It is made in Pensacola by Dr. Philip E. Hannah. For sale at HANNAH BROS.

ELKS ELECT OFFICERS.

Annual Meeting of the Local Lodge Held Last Night.

The annual meeting of Pensacola Lodge No. 497, Benevolent Order of Protective Elks, was held at their elegant club rooms last night and officers for the current year were elected as follows:

Exalted Ruler—W. H. Northup. Esteemed Leading Knight—W. A. Allen.

Esteemed Loyal Knight—Fannin Chipley. Lecturing Knight—R. E. L. Daniel.

Secretary—Max J. Heinberg. Treasurer—Max L. Bear.

Tiler—Ed. Goldstucker. Trustee—George E. Smith.

These officers were installed by Past Exalted Ruler B. C. Tunison, acting for District Deputy W. W. Carter, who was unable to attend.

Exalted Ruler Northup appointed John E. Stillman as Esquire; M. L. Roch as inner guard; J. Marion Clutter as organist and George P. Wentworth as chaplain.

Past Exalted Ruler B. C. Tunison was selected as representative to the grand lodge, which will meet this year at Atlantic City, N. J.

The lodge now has a membership of 65 and as handsome club rooms as can be found anywhere in the South. The closing number on the program was a banquet, to which the members did full justice.

Don't forget Starrett at Clutter's hall Friday March 3rd.

Attend Falk's opening tomorrow, Thursday and Friday.
